

P L A Y I T

S A F E

Illinois Attorney General's Children's Product
Recall Guide

2008

A Message from Illinois Attorney General Lisa Madigan

I am pleased to introduce my 2008 Play It Safe Shopping Guide. This Guide contains information on every children's product recalled from January 1, 2008, through December 31, 2008. While 2007 was dubbed the "Year of the Recall," 2008 has been a time of tremendous change in the area of product safety, from increased consumer awareness to the passage of stronger and more effective federal legislation.

While these changes are very encouraging, parents and caregivers will always need to remain vigilant about product recalls. Since January 2008, hundreds of toys, cribs, children's clothing and other items—amounting to more than 18 million individual units—were recalled because they pose a danger to children. This Guide provides a photograph and short description of each of these products. It is my hope that you will use the Guide to ensure that the purchases you make and the gifts you receive this year are safe.

I have also included information on the dangers associated with lead. In 2008, more than 60 children's products, totaling more than 6 million individual units, were recalled due to unsafe levels of lead. Lead is also commonly found in homes older than 1978, the year that lead paint was officially banned by the U.S. Consumer Product Safety Commission.

As you may know, lead is a dangerous substance that can make it harder for your child to learn and can have devastating effects on behavior. Unfortunately, a child with lead poisoning may not have any obvious symptoms. Once lead is present in a child's system, the damage may be irreversible, making prevention to exposure critically important.

In my efforts to protect Illinois children from lead poisoning, I worked with the Illinois Legislature to pass Senate Bill 2860, which requires certain children's products to have a lead warning statement label if the product has even small amounts of lead. I am pleased to announce that this bill was signed into law on December 23, 2008.

I hope that you find this Guide useful as you purchase children's products. In addition, if there is any chance that your child has been exposed to lead, talk to your physician about checking your child's blood lead level immediately. In particular, parents and caregivers of children who live in high risk zip codes (see the Resources section for more information) should be speaking with their doctor and getting blood lead level tests early and often.

If you have any questions or concerns about a recall, lead poisoning or any other similar issue, please call the Attorney General's Product Recall Hotline at 1-888-414-7678 (TTY: 1-800-964-3013).

Lisa Madigan
Attorney General

Table of Contents

I. General Recall Information

II. Children's Product Recalls

- a. Toys
- b. Jewelry
- c. Cribs, Furniture & Baby Gear
- d. Clothing
- e. ATVs and Bicycles

III. Resources

- a. What You Should Know About Exposure to Lead
- b. Blood Lead Testing Clinics in Illinois
- c. Pediatric Lead Poisoning High-Risk ZIP Code Areas
- d. Resource Guide

DO YOU WANT MORE INFORMATION ON THESE IMPORTANT RECALLS?

1. Sign Up For Safety! You can sign up for e-mail notification of all recalled products at www.recalls.gov.
2. Check All Recalled Products, Anytime. Visit the Consumer Product Safety Commission's Web site for a complete list of recalled products at www.cpsc.gov.
3. Have Questions? Noticed a recalled product being sold in stores or on the secondhand market? Call the Attorney General's Product Recall Hotline at 1-888-414-7678 (TTY: 1-800-964-3013) or e-mail us at recalls@atg.state.il.us if you have questions or see a recalled product for sale.

HELP KEEP DANGEROUS PRODUCTS OFF THE SECONDHAND MARKET

Attorney General Lisa Madigan's Watchdogs are a group of volunteers who work with the Attorney General's office to monitor Craigslist and eBay postings in their communities for recalled products. These volunteers may also visit their local resale shops, garage sales and yard sales to check for recalled products being sold unknowingly. To join Madigan's Watchdogs, e-mail watchdogs@atg.state.il.us.

Toys

The following is a list of toy recalls issued between January 1, 2008, and December 31, 2008.

Toy Wagons Recalled on January 3, 2008.

The surface paint on the wagon bucket contains high amounts of lead. This recall includes the red metal wagon, Model # MH1250. The wagons were sold at Tractor Supply Company stores nationwide from September 2002 through November 2007.

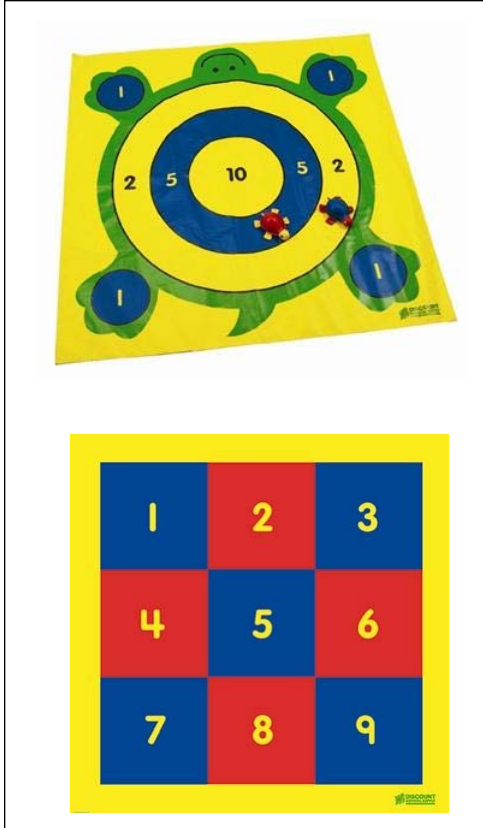

Coin Banks Recalled on January 10, 2008.

The surface paint on the coin banks contains high amounts of lead. The coin banks were provided as a free gift to Coastal Federal Credit Union members in North Carolina from February 2006 through September 2007.

Toy Wrestler Figures Recalled on January 15, 2008.

The surface paint on the figures contains high amounts of lead. The toys were sold at dollar stores and discount stores nationwide from January 2007 through December 2007.

Tic Tac Turtle Toss Mats Recalled on January 16, 2008.

The paint on the 50-inch vinyl and polyester play mats contains high amounts of lead. The mats were sold in Discount School Supply Catalogs and on the company's Web site from June 2007 through September 2007.

Hanging Photo Frames Recalled on January 16, 2008.

The surface paint on the photo frames contains high amounts of lead. This recall includes 4-inch by 6-inch hanging picture frames. The frames were sold at Babies "R" Us stores nationwide from April 2007 through November 2007.

"My First Kenmore" Play Stoves Recalled on January 17, 2008.

A metal bracket connecting the door to the stove can cause the product to tip over when the door is opened. The CPSC received one report of the product tipping over resulting in bruises to a child. The toy was sold at Sears and Kmart stores nationwide from September 2007 through November 2007.

SEVEN DIGIT
LOT CODE:

2007225A4B

Affected lot codes:
"2007195" to "2007244"

NOTE: Markings before or after the seven-digit lot number may be ignored

Cranium Cadoo Board Games Recalled on January 17, 2008.

The surface paint on the die contains high amounts of lead. Only Cranium Cadoo board games with Lot Numbers from 2007195 to 2007244 are included in the recall. The games were sold at Fred Meyer, Kmart, Shopko, Wal-Mart and specialty game stores nationwide from October 2007 through January 2008.

Toy Racing Cars Recalled on January 23, 2008.

The surface paint on the remote control operated toy cars contains high amounts of lead. The cars were sold at retail dollar and discount stores nationwide from October 2007 through November 2007.

Battat Magnabild Magnetic Building Systems Recalled on January 23, 2008.

Tiny, powerful magnets inside the building pieces can fall out. Magnets found by young children can be swallowed or aspirated. If more than one magnet is swallowed, the magnets can attract to each other and cause intestinal perforation or blockage, which can be fatal if not treated immediately. This recall involves the 293-piece (Item # BB1502H) and the 180-piece (Item # BB1431H) Magnabild Magnetic Building System sets. The item number is found on a hang tag attached to the set. The building systems were sold at various retail stores nationwide and online from 2005 through 2007.

Education Assessment Blocks Recalled on January 24, 2008.

The surface paint on the green wooden blocks contains high amounts of lead. The blocks are part of the ESI-R Screening Materials, which are educational tools used by schools to assess young children. The item pictured was imported by RR Donnelley of Chicago, Illinois, and distributed by Pearson Learning

Group and Pearson Early Learning. Pearson distributes to schools, examiners and educators nationwide via sales representatives, catalogs and online at www.pearsonschool.com and www.pearsonlearning.com. The items were sold from January 2003 through November 2007.

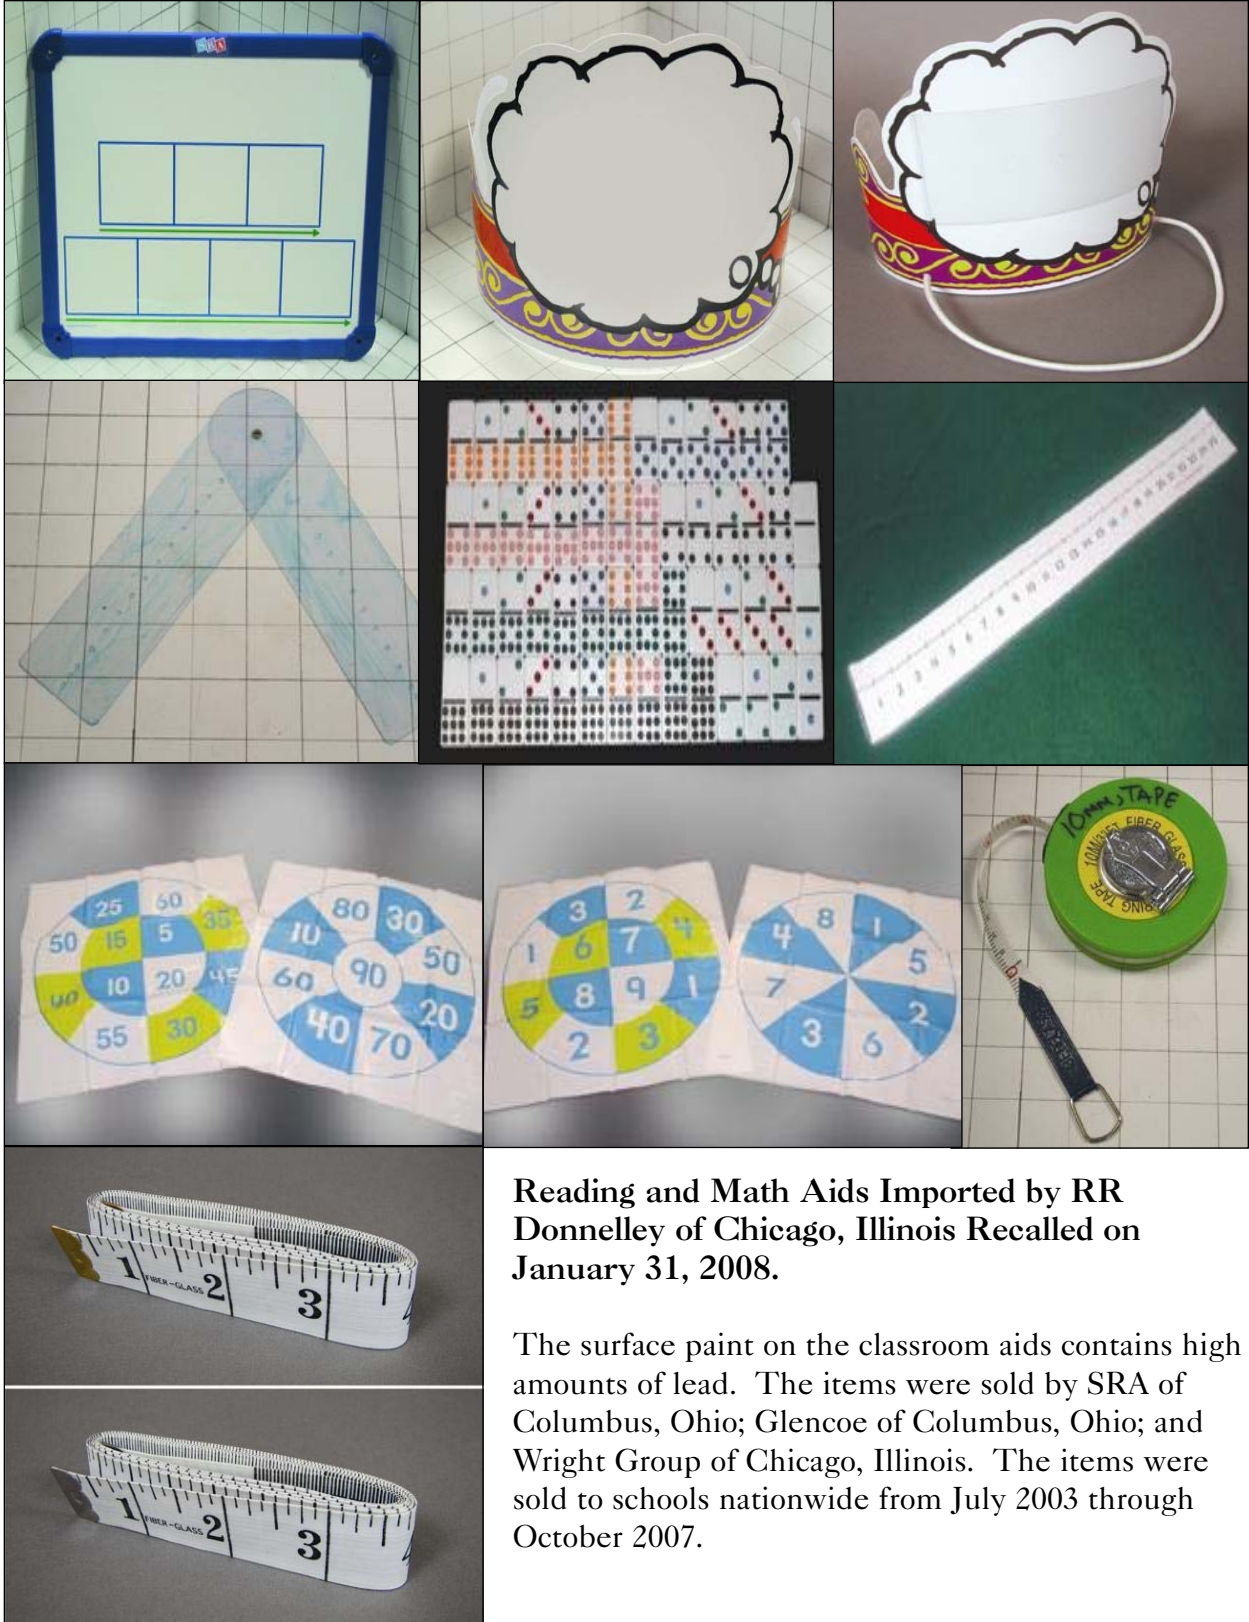

Big Wooden Learning Blocks and Jumbo Wooden Train Set Recalled on January 24, 2008.

The surface paint on some of the toys contains high amounts of lead. The toys were sold at Christmas Tree Shops located in the Northwest and Mid-Atlantic regions from October 2006 through November 2007.

Baby Einstein Baby Neptune Soothing Seascape Crib Toys Recalled on January 31, 2008.

The anchors that hold the straps to the back of the turtle can detach, posing a choking hazard to young children. Model # 30858 is printed on the label on the leg of the turtle. Only crib toys manufactured in October 2007 with date code BJ7 printed on the back of the battery compartment are included in the recall. The crib toy was sold at discount department stores and by online retailers nationwide from November 2007 through January 2008.

Reading and Math Aids Imported by RR Donnelley of Chicago, Illinois Recalled on January 31, 2008.

The surface paint on the classroom aids contains high amounts of lead. The items were sold by SRA of Columbus, Ohio; Glencoe of Columbus, Ohio; and Wright Group of Chicago, Illinois. The items were sold to schools nationwide from July 2003 through October 2007.

Toy Gardening Hand Rakes Recalled on February 5, 2008.

The paint on the gardening tool hand rake contains high amounts of lead. The rakes were sold at various home improvement and toy stores nationwide from June 2007 through November 2007.

Sketchbooks Recalled on February 6, 2008.

The paint on the sketchbooks' colored spiral metal bindings contains high amounts of lead. The sketchbooks were sold at specialty and gift stores nationwide from September 2005 through January 2008.

West Music Egg-Shaker Toy Instruments Recalled on February 7, 2008.

The end cap can detach from the egg shaker allowing the small beads to spill out, posing a choking and aspiration hazard to young children. The toy was sold at West Music stores in Iowa and Illinois, through the West Music catalog, online at www.westmusic.com, and at West Music exhibit booths nationwide from October 2006 through December 2007.

Remote Controlled Helicopter Toys Recalled on February 12, 2008.

The rechargeable battery contained inside the helicopter can catch fire during charging, igniting the helicopter and nearby combustible materials. This poses a burn or fire hazard to consumers. The toys were sold at sporting goods stores and other retailers nationwide from May 2007 through December 2007.

Cinderella Battery-Powered Toy Cars Recalled on February 19, 2008.

The wires under the hood of the car and/or in the battery compartment under the seat can short circuit, posing a fire and burn hazard to children riding in the car. The toy cars were sold at Wal-Mart stores nationwide from August 2005 through February 2006.

Family Dollar "Fun 'n' Safe" Magnetic Dart Boards Recalled on February 22, 2008.

Tiny, powerful magnets at the ends of the darts can detach. Magnets found by young children can be swallowed or aspirated. If more than one magnet is swallowed, the magnets can attract to each other and cause intestinal perforation or blockage, which can be fatal if not treated immediately. "Made in China" is embossed on the back of the board. The dart boards were sold at Family Dollar stores nationwide from January 2001 through January 2008.

Memory Testing Cards Recalled on February 22, 2008.

The surface paint on the Universal Nonverbal Intelligence Test Symbolic Memory Cards contains high amounts of lead. The cards were sold by Riverside Publishing Company of Rolling Meadows, Illinois, to testing facilities and administrators nationwide from January 2003 through November 2007.

Infantino Infant Rattles Recalled on March 5, 2008.

The tail piece on the Infantino Lamb Grabby Rattles can detach, posing a choking hazard to young children. Only rattles with date code 0907 printed on the back of the left ear of the lamb are included in the recall. The date code is printed in a dial format with the year in the middle of a circle and an arrow pointing to the number on the circle that indicates the month. The rattles were sold at Wal-Mart, Babies "R" Us, and specialty stores from September 2007 through February 2008.

Toy Airplanes, Cars, and Motorcycles Recalled on March 12, 2008.

The paint on the X Force Commander Toy Airplanes and Super Famous Toy Cars and Motorcycles contains high amounts of lead. The toys were sold at dollar stores from September 2006 through November 2007.

Play Wonder Toy Sundae Sets Recalled on March 13, 2008.

The wooden cherries on top of the sundae set can detach, posing a choking hazard to young children. The sundae sets were sold at Target stores from December 2006 through December 2007.

Battat Magnabild Magnetic Building Toys and Sets Recalled on March 13, 2008.

Small magnets inside the building pieces can fall out and be swallowed or aspirated by young children. If more than one magnet is swallowed, they can attract to each other and cause intestinal perforations or blockages, which can be fatal if not treated immediately. This recall includes the 108-piece (Item # BB1439H, found on the hang tag) and the 68-piece (Item # BAT-34, found on the box) Magnabild Magnetic Building System sets. The toys were sold at various retailers and online from July 2005 through February 2008.

More Than One Million Mega Brands MagnaMan Magnetic Toy Figures Recalled on March 17, 2008.

Small magnets inside the figures can detach and be swallowed or aspirated by young children. If more than one magnet is swallowed, they can attract to each other and cause intestinal perforations or blockages, which can be fatal if not treated immediately. The figures come in either a "Futuristic Warrior" or "Ancient Warrior" theme. The toys were sold at Wal-Mart, Target, Toys "R" Us, Kmart and other toy stores from January 2005 through December 2007.

More Than One Million Mega Brands Magtastick and Magnetix Jr. Pre-School Magnetic Toys Recalled on March 17, 2008.

The magnets in the small flexible parts of the animals, vehicles, and building sets that allow the parts to connect to large, colored metal balls can detach and fall out. The magnets can be swallowed or aspirated by young children. If more than one magnet is swallowed, they can attract to each other and cause intestinal perforations or blockages, which can be fatal if not treated immediately. The toys were sold at Wal-Mart, Target, Toys "R" Us, Kmart and other toy stores from January 2005 through December 2007.

Wire Bound Journals and Calendars Recalled on March 18, 2008.

The paint on the metal spiral bindings of the journals and calendars contains high amounts of lead. "Galison" or "Mudpuppy" and the ISBN # is printed on the back cover. The journals and calendars were sold at specialty and gift stores and online from August 2003 through December 2007.

Toy Puzzle Vehicle Sets Recalled on March 20, 2008.

The surface paint on the 16-piece Puzzle Track Play sets, also known as the Battery Operated Puzzle Vehicle sets, contains high amounts of lead. The sets were sold on QVC televised programs, online at the QVC Web site, via the toll-free number and in the studio store from September 2002 through December 2007.

Easter Egg Containers and Spinning Egg Tops Recalled on March 21, 2008.

The paint on Hobby Lobby Camouflage Easter Egg Treat Containers and Easter Spinning Egg Tops contains high amounts of lead. The containers and tops were sold at Hobby Lobby stores from January 2008 through March 2008.

Toy Penguins Recalled on March 25, 2008.

The head of the penguin toy can detach exposing connectors with sharp points, posing a laceration hazard. The toy penguins were sold at specialty toy stores and online from May 2007 through February 2008.

Ring Toss Game Recalled on March 26, 2008.

The paint on the yellow peg of the Educational Insights Ring Toss Game contains high amounts of lead. The Ring Toss Game was sold at school supply stores nationwide from December 2007 through February 2008.

Avon Plush Warming Polar Bears Recalled on March 27, 2008.

The bear comes with a buckwheat filled pouch that can be heated in the microwave and inserted in the bear's belly. The pouch can overheat and ignite, posing a burn and fire hazard. "Avon Products" is printed on a white tag sewn onto the bear. The toys were sold by Avon independent sales representatives and online at the Avon Web site from July 2007 through February 2008.

Rock 'N Ride Plush Rocker Toys Recalled on March 27, 2008.

The base of the rocker can become unstable and allow the rocker to tip forward or backward, posing a fall hazard to children. This recall involves Rock 'N Ride plush rocker toys sold in eight models: brown pony; pink pony; pink unicorn; deluxe pony; deluxe bull; lil' penguin; lil' propeller plane; and Clifford big red rocker. Rockers included in this recall have a date code from July 26, 2007, through December 29, 2007. The date codes are printed on a sticker inside the battery compartment. The rocker was sold at Wal-Mart, Toys "R" Us, Kmart, Target, Atwoods, and Pamida stores and online from September 2007 through March 2008.

"Main Street Drag" Sunglasses Recalled on April 3, 2008.

The paint in the orange lettering on the temples of the sunglasses contains high amounts of lead. Style # DI25K7116 is printed on the left temple. The sunglasses were sold at Payless, Walgreen's, Academy Sports, and CVS stores nationwide from October 2007 through March 2008.

Imaginarium Activity Centers Recalled on April 3, 2008.

The Imaginarium Multi-Sided Activity Centers and Jungle Activity Centers contain small parts that can detach, posing a choking hazard to young children. The activity centers were sold at Toys "R" Us stores nationwide, and online at www.toyrus.com, from August 2007 through February 2008.

Cuddly Cousins Plush Insect Toys
Recalled on April 7, 2008.

The recalled plush insect toys contain small parts that can detach, posing a choking hazard to young children. The recalled plush insect toys come in six designs: lady bug; bumble bee; caterpillar; snail; and two butterflies. Covered items include those with product # 903995, UPC Code 6 39277 03995 8, and date code 71. The toys were sold at Dollar Tree, Dollar Bill$, Dollar Express, Greenbacks, Only One $1, and Deal$ stores nationwide from March 2007 through December 2007.

Fun 'N Games Magnetic Dart Boards
Recalled on April 8, 2008.

Small magnets at the ends of the darts can detach. Magnets found by young children can be swallowed or aspirated. If more than one magnet is swallowed, the magnets can attract to each other and cause intestinal perforations or blockages, which can be fatal if not treated immediately. The dart boards were sold at Family Dollar stores nationwide from September 2002 through March 2008.

Little Builder Children's Board Book Sets with Toys Recalled on April 8, 2008.

The cylinder on the toy concrete mixer and the tailgate on the toy dump truck can detach, posing a choking hazard to young children. This recall includes Little Builder Children's Board Book sets with ISBN # 1-49373-215-9. The sets were sold at Wal-Mart, Levy Home Entertainment, Lion Sales of NW Brunswick, Farris Wholesale Outlet, Crane Book Sales, Ingram Book Company, BPD Inc., Books A Million and Christmas Tree Shops nationwide, and online at www.amazon.com and www.barnes&noble.com from August 2007 through February 2008.

Interchange Robot Toys Recalled on April 9, 2008.

Surface paints on the toys contain high amounts of lead. The toys were sold at dollar stores nationwide from October 2007 through December 2007.

Hillbilly Teeth Recalled on April 10, 2008.

The gray surface paint on the teeth contains high amounts of lead. The teeth were sold at grocery, drug, convenience and mass retailers nationwide from March 2005 through March 2008.

Michaels Stores Seasonal Writing Pens Recalled on April 10, 2008.

The pens' surface coating contains high amounts of lead. The recalled pens include the Flower Writer, Christmas Writer, Easter Writer and Spooky Writer. The pens were sold at Michaels retail stores nationwide from August 2007 through March 2008.

Lithium-Polymer Battery Chargers Used with Toy Helicopter Kit Recalled on April 14, 2008.

The lithium-polymer batteries sold with the AT600 Falcon Helicopter kit can ignite while charging, posing a fire hazard to consumers. One consumer received serious burns to his hands when the battery ignited. The recall also includes any spare battery (Model # AT600B) or spare charger (Model # ATS6046) purchased for this kit. The chargers and batteries were sold online at www.hobby-lobby.com from April 2006 through July 2007.

Western Rider Push Toys Recalled on April 16, 2008.

The surface paint on the gloves, shirt, and pants of the rider toy contains high amounts of lead. The toys were sold at retail dollar and discount stores nationwide from February 2005 through February 2008.

Tumble Tower Infant Baby Rattles Recalled on May 15, 2008.

The blue plastic end caps of the rattles can break, causing small pieces to spill out, and posing a choking hazard. The rattles were sold nationwide at gift and specialty stores, through mail order catalogs, and online from September 2007 through April 2008.

Battery Operated Cowboy on Horse Toys Recalled on May 20, 2008.

The surface paint on the shoes and pants of the cowboys contains high amounts of lead. The toys were sold at retail discount and dollar stores nationwide from April 2007 through January 2008.

More Than 2 Million Units of United Scientific Magnets Recalled on May 22, 2008.

The surface paint on the magnets contains high amounts of lead. The magnets were sold nationwide by independent distributors to schools from October 1996 to September 2007.

Basic Beat Shaker Guiro Instruments Recalled on May 22, 2008.

The surface paint on the instruments contains high amounts of lead. The instruments were sold at West Music stores in Iowa and Illinois, and nationwide through the West Music and Music Together catalogs, online at www.westmusic.com and www.musictogether.com, and at West Music booths at conventions and workshops from November 2001 through March 2008.

Disney Tinker Bell Wand Recalled on May 22, 2008.

The paint on the pearl beads in the flowers of the wands contains high amounts of lead. The wands were sold nationwide at Disney stores from April 2007 through October 2007.

Sure Grip Paint Brushes Recalled on May 22, 2008.

The surface paint on the handles of the yellow paint brushes contains high amounts of lead. The paint brushes were sold nationwide by Early Childhood Resource distributors, including teacher supply stores, from May 2007 through December 2007.

American Scientific Magnets
Recalled on May 22, 2008.

The surface paint on the magnets contains high amounts of lead. This recall includes horseshoe, rectangular bar, ring-shaped and U-shaped magnets sold primarily to schools for use in science classes. The magnets have red and blue paint on the surface of the magnet. The magnets were sold nationwide by independent distributors from October 2006 through February 2008.

Floppy Friends Horse Toys Recalled on May 22, 2008.

The surface paint on the horses contains high amounts of lead. The horses were sold nationwide at hobby stores, gas stations, gift shops and toy stores from February 2008 through April 2008.

Hinge cover
can detach

Products with a screw visible are not included in the recall.

A Million Little Tikes Chit 'N Chat Toy Cell Phones Recalled on May 28, 2008.

The hinge cover on the toy can detach, posing a choking hazard. The CPSC has received one report of a child beginning to choke on the small part. The toy phones are multi-colored and have a sticker on the back with Model # KSL4010 (sold separately) or KSL8032, KSL8033, or KSL8051 (sold with other items) imprinted on it. "Designed and Licensed by Kids Station Toys International Ltd." is printed on the back of the toy phones. The recalled phones were sold nationwide at department stores, juvenile product stores, and drug stores from June 2006 through March 2008.

Remote Controlled Helicopters Recalled on May 29, 2008.

The rechargeable battery in the "Sky Champion" wireless indoor helicopter can catch fire, causing the helicopter and nearby combustible materials to ignite. "BH26047" is printed on the tail of the helicopter. The helicopters were sold nationwide at Walgreens stores from June 2007 through November 2007.

eStyle Mini Chef Complete Toy Kitchens Recalled on June 5, 2008.

The four pegs supporting the oven shelf and four pegs supporting the refrigerator shelf can pull out of the wood, posing a choking hazard to children. The toy kitchen unit can also tip over, posing a risk of serious injury to children. The toy kitchen was sold at Babystyle stores nationwide and at babystyle.com from October 2007 through November 2007.

Animal Tracking Explorer Kits Recalled on June 5, 2008.

The powder in the kit marked “plaster of paris” is actually calcium hydroxide, posing a risk of skin and eye irritation to children using the product. The kit was sold online at www.mindwareonline.com and in MindWare’s catalog from September 2007 through December 2007.

If "Made in China" is stamped on the underside, the unit is not subject to the recall. Helicopters without markings are included in the recall.

"Thunder Wolf" Remote Controlled Indoor Helicopters Recalled on June 26, 2008.

The rechargeable battery inside the helicopter can overheat. This can result in the helicopter's body melting, posing a fire or burn risk to consumers. "TW0996" is printed on the tail of the helicopter. Only helicopters that do not have the "Made in China" stamp on the underside of the toy are subject to the recall. The toys were sold at retail stores nationwide from June 2007 through December 2007.

Redcat Racing FM Remote Controlled Vehicles Recalled on July 1, 2008.

The remote control unit can lose its signal, causing the toy vehicle to lose control, posing a risk of injury to the user or bystanders. The following models are included in the recall: the Hurricane XP and the Hurricane XP Pro, the Avalanche XP, the Monsoon XP and the Tsunami Ultrawide. The vehicles were sold at authorized dealers nationwide from March 2007 through April 2008.

Sky Scrambler

Sharper Image

Sky Scrambler and The Sharper Image Wireless Indoor Helicopters Recalled on July 24, 2008.

The rechargeable lithium ion battery inside the helicopters can overheat, catch fire, and ignite nearby combustibles, posing fire and burn hazards to consumers. The Sky Scrambler helicopter has BH26047 printed on the tail. The Sharper Image helicopter has "The Sharper Image" printed on the tail. The helicopters were sold by mass merchandisers, department stores, drug stores, and other retail stores nationwide, and online from July 2007 through May 2008.

Bright Starts Ring Rattles Recalled on July 24, 2008.

The tip of the bee rattle's antenna can detach, posing a choking hazard to small children. Model # 8534 and Date Code PA8 are printed on a sewn-in label on the bee's head. The rattles were sold by toy stores, mass merchandisers, and other retail stores nationwide from January 2008 through June 2008.

Classic Horseshoe Magnets Recalled on July 24, 2008.

The plastic coating on the magnets contains high amounts of lead. The horseshoes are 6 inches tall and have a red plastic coating on the handle end. Each foot of the magnets has an engraved "S" or an engraved "N." The magnets were sold at specialty retail stores and by educational supply distributors nationwide from March 2003 through April 2008.

Pacific Science Magnets Recalled on July 24, 2008.

The paint on the magnets contains high amounts of lead. The recall includes the large and small U-shaped magnets, the large and miniature bar magnets, the magnet sets which include a compass, and the magnet needle sets. The magnets were sold by distributors nationwide who sold the magnets to educational institutions, including colleges, high schools and middle schools, from April 2000 through February 2008.

Stuffed Toys Recalled on July 25, 2008.

The stuffed toy dogs contain small parts, posing a choking hazard to young children. A tag attached to the toy is written in Japanese with the UPC Codes 4947678264166 or 4947678246063. The toys were sold at Daiso retail stores in California and Washington from October 2007 through December 2007.

Earthentree Wooden Toys and Rattles Recalled on July 29, 2008.

The recalled toys contain small parts or can break into small parts, posing a choking hazard. Some of the toys also have a string longer than 12 inches, posing a strangulation hazard to young children. The toys were sold at Earthentree's Web site, fairs, trade shows and retail stores nationwide from December 2007 through May 2008.

Fisher-Price Learning Pots and Pans Recalled on August 7, 2008.

The toy is missing screws for the blue toy pan, which can cause the plastic cover to come loose and release small balls, posing a choking hazard to young children. The Model # G6685 is located on the bottom of the blue pan. The toy was sold at discount department stores and toy stores nationwide from October 2007 through August 2008.

Batteries Used With the Heli-Max Axe CP-L Radio Controlled Helicopter Kits Recalled on August 19, 2008.

The rechargeable battery used in this helicopter can over-heat and catch fire while charging, igniting nearby combustible materials. This poses a fire hazard to consumers. The recalled battery is the Electrifly lithium-polymer battery (Part # GMPM0401) sold individually or with the helicopter. The battery was sold at hobby stores nationwide and online from November 2007 through March 2008.

Taggies Strollin' Along Stroller Activity Bars Recalled on August 26, 2008.

The shiny material on the elephant's ear on the activity bar can detach, posing a choking hazard to young children. The activity bars were sold at specialty stores nationwide and online from February 2007 through July 2008.

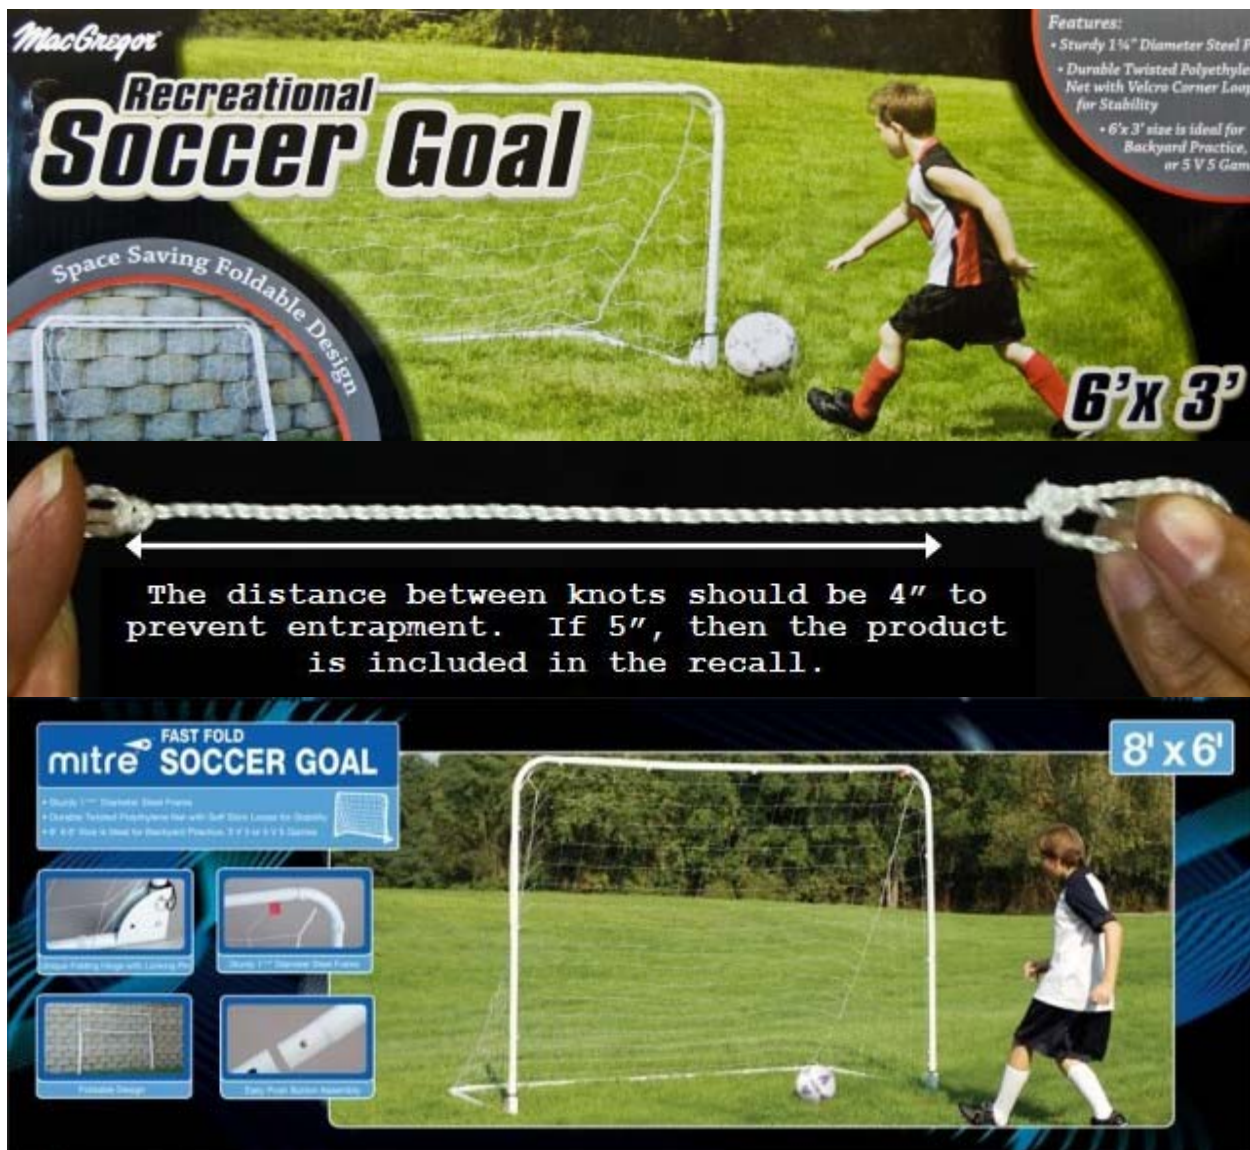

Wooden Puzzles, Infant Rattles, Pacifier Holders, and Stroller Toys Recalled on August 28, 2008.

The wooden rattles, pacifier holders, and stroller toys contain small parts including glued on mirrors or prisms that can detach, posing a choking hazard to young children. The head of the ladybug puzzle pieces can also pose a choking hazard. "HABA" is printed on all the recalled items. The toys were sold at specialty toy stores nationwide and by specialty online retailers from January 2002 through August 2008.

"Protocol" Remote Controlled Mini Helicopter Toys Recalled on September 10, 2008.

The rechargeable battery inside the helicopter can overheat, causing the helicopter's body to melt. This recall includes the "Protocol" remote controlled mini helicopter toys with a model number starting with 1442 (found on the packaging). The mini helicopter toys were sold at retail stores nationwide from October 2007 through December 2007.

MacGregor Folding Soccer Goals and Mitre Folding Soccer Goals Recalled on September 16, 2008.

This product is responsible for the strangulation death of a 20-month-old child. He was found with his arm and neck tangled in the soccer goal net.

The fixed knot flexible openings in the soccer goal net pose a strangulation hazard to young children. The soccer goals were sold at Wal-Mart, Ace Hardware, and sports and toy stores nationwide from May 2002 through May 2008.

Wood Abacus Recalled on September 22, 2008.

The wooden rods on the abacus can detach, posing a choking hazard to young children. The abacus was sold in LTD Commodities and ABC Distributing catalogs nationwide and online from December 2006 through February 2008.

TCB Imports Toy Police Cars Recalled on September 25, 2008.

The red paint on the toy cars contains high amounts of lead. The toy cars were sold at dollar and discount stores nationwide from May 2008 through August 2008.

Buzz's Boatyard Toy Boats Recalled on September 30, 2008.

The paint on the recalled toy boats contains high amounts of lead. The boats were sold online at Buzz's Boatyard's Web site, www.buzzboats.com, from April 2007 through November 2007.

Lawn Dart Games Recalled on October 2, 2008.

The darts in the games pose a puncture hazard to young children. Lawn darts were banned in December 1988 to protect children from skull, face and eye puncture wounds. The recalled lawn dart game includes four projectiles, each consisting of a 14 3/4" bamboo shaft, four fins, and a wooden tip. The Lawn Dart Games were sold online at Kensington Trading Company's Web site and Hammacher Schlemmer's Web site from March 2006 through July 2008.

Portable CD and MP3 Players Recalled on October 7, 2008.

Surface coatings on these products contain high amounts of lead. The CD and MP3 players were sold at Limited Too and Justice retail stores nationwide, through the Limited Too catalog, and online at www.limitedtoo.com from May 2007 through August 2008.

Backyard Play Systems Outdoor Playset Gliders Recalled on October 8, 2008.

Some of the gliders were shipped with assembly instructions that did not inform consumers to tighten all lock nuts during assembly, including those attached by the manufacturer. As a result, some lock nuts are not fully fastened during assembly, which could cause the glider to detach, posing a fall hazard to children. The green plastic gliders were sold as an accessory to home play equipment marketed under the brand names Heartland Play Systems, Yardline Play Systems and Backyard Play Systems. These playsets were sold at Backyard Buildings and More and Lowe's stores nationwide, and online at www.costco.com, www.bettymills.com and www.backyardbuildings.com from February 2008 through July 2008.

Nerf N-Strike Recon Blasters Recalled on October 9, 2008.

The Nerf N-Strike Recon CS6 Blaster's plunger can pull the user's skin during firing of the toy blaster, resulting in injury to the face, neck and/or chest. The blasters were sold at Wal-Mart, Target, Toys "R" Us, discount stores and toy stores nationwide from November 2007 through August 2008.

Alnico Bar Magnets Recalled on October 14, 2008.

Surface paints on the Alnico 3-inch bar magnets contain high amounts of lead. The magnets were sold as Item # MG-BAR3AL online and by mail order from May 2008 through September 2008.

Battery Operated Toy "Speed Boats" Recalled on October 15, 2008.

The two battery terminals can come into contact with each other, causing the battery to overheat, posing a burn hazard to consumers. The toy boats were sold at Dollar General stores nationwide from March 2008 through July 2008.

Rage Wireless Guitars Used with the Nintendo Wii System Recalled on October 22, 2008.

A circuit board defect can cause AA batteries used in the guitar to leak if the batteries are installed incorrectly, posing a risk of chemical burns to consumers. The manufacturer received one report of a burn to a consumer. The guitars were sold at mass merchandisers and specialty retailers nationwide from June 2008 through September 2008.

Rechargeable Batteries and Recharging Station for LeapFrog Didj Custom Gaming System Recalled on October 24, 2008.

The rechargeable batteries included with the Recharging Station can overheat if the gaming system is placed into the recharging base upside down, posing a burn hazard to consumers. The Recharging Station comes with two rechargeable batteries, an AC adapter, and a recharging base. The recharging base is white with a green indicator light on the bottom. The Recharging Station for Didj was sold as Item # 30676, which is printed on the box and on the bottom of the recharging base. The batteries and recharging base were sold at department stores and toy stores nationwide and online at www.leapfrog.com, and by other online retailers from July 2008 through October 2008.

Casper the Friendly Ghost Halloween Mini-Figurines Recalled on October 29, 2008.

The recalled Halloween Mini-Figurines contain high amounts of lead. The mini-figurines were sold at gift, specialty, card and drug stores nationwide from June 2005 through September 2008.

Wooden Toys Imported by Earth Friendly LLC Recalled on October 30, 2008.

Small parts can detach and break from the toy, posing a choking hazard to young children. In addition, the size of the rattle handle violates voluntary rattle standards. This recall includes three models of wooden toys: Moe the car; Cubby the stackable bear; and the Bell rattle. The toys were sold at toy specialty stores in Alaska, California, Colorado, Montana, Nevada, Oregon and Washington from April 2008 through September 2008.

Toy Xylophones Recalled on November 4, 2008.

The surface paint on the toy contains high amounts of lead. The toy was sold at Dollar Zone "Giant," Same 99 Cent Store, and 99 Cents Mart in Texas from December 2007 through February 2008.

Mini-Televisor Toys Recalled on November 4, 2008.

The surface paint on the toy contains high amounts of lead. The toy was sold online at OKK Trading's Web site, www.okktoys.com, from July 2008 through September 2008.

CORAL Swim 'N Score Pool Stix Recalled on November 13, 2008.

This toy is a dive stick. Children can fall or land on dive sticks in shallow water and suffer impalement injuries. Eye and other facial injuries are also possible. The CPSC banned certain types of dives sticks in April 2001. The toy was sold at Modell's Sporting Goods stores nationwide from August 1999 through October 2008.

My Little Train Classics Toy Trains Recalled on November 13, 2008.

The toy contains small parts which can detach, posing a choking hazard to young children. It was sold by various wholesalers and retailers nationwide from March 2007 through October 2008.

Cobra Electronics Children's Two-Way Radios Recalled on November 13, 2008.

The rechargeable batteries in the radios can leak electrolyte, posing a chemical burn risk to consumers. The recall includes radios with Product # PR191-2VP, which can be found on the packaging and on the label inside the battery compartment. The "CEL" battery has "300 mAh" printed on the battery itself. The toy was sold at Toys "R" Us stores nationwide from August 2008 through September 2008.

Dive Sticks Sold at Target Recalled on November 19, 2008.

This toy is a dive stick. Children can fall or land on dive sticks in shallow water and suffer impalement injuries. Eye and other facial injuries are also possible. The CPSC banned pre-weighted dive sticks in April 2001. The toy was sold at Target stores nationwide from April 2008 through August 2008.

ImagiPLAY Bead Maze Toys Recalled on November 20, 2008.

The trees on the toys can detach, exposing a metal screw. The screw poses a laceration hazard to young children. The toys were sold at toy retailers nationwide from August 2008 through October 2008.

Groovy Fashions "Sassy Jammies" Dolls Clothing Sets Recalled on December 3, 2008.

The surface paint on the pajama pants contains high amounts of lead. The clothing sets were sold by mail order, online and in specialty gift stores nationwide from January 2008 through October 2008.

OKK Trading Army Figures Recalled on December 3, 2008.

The surface paint on the face of the Army figures contains high amounts of lead. The figures were sold at dollar type retailers and online at www.okktoys.com from June 2008 through September 2008.

Dinosaur Epoch Toys Recalled on December 17, 2008.

The surface paint on the toy dinosaurs contains high amounts of lead. The toys were sold online at www.xtremetoyzone.com from May 2008 through October 2008.

Calypso Steel Drums Recalled on December 23, 2008.

The surface paint on the toy drums contains high amounts of lead. The drums were sold in mail order catalogues, online and in retail stores from December 2006 through December 2007.

Jewelry

The following is a list of children's jewelry recalls issued between January 1, 2008, and December 31, 2008.

Pendants and Candle Charms Recalled on February 7, 2008.

The pendants and charms contain high amounts of lead. The pendants were sold separately and on candles at gift stores nationwide from January 2002 through November 2007.

A Life of Faith Charm Bracelet Sets
Recalled on February 14, 2008.

The surface paint on the pearl white beads of the bracelet contains high amounts of lead. The bracelet sets were sold at specialty toy, book and gift stores nationwide from October 2006 through November 2007.

Metal Necklaces Recalled on February 22, 2008.

The necklaces contain high amounts of lead. The cat necklace was sold at department stores and specialty stores nationwide from January 2006 through July 2007. The heart, heart and key, and lock and key necklaces were sold at department stores and specialty stores nationwide from July 2007 through November 2007.

Nintendo Lapel Pins Recalled on April 29, 2008.

The metal lapel pins contain high amounts of lead. The pins were sold at Nintendo stores in Redmond, Washington, and New York, New York, between April 2004 and November 2007. The recalled lapel pins were also distributed to employees at electronics and game stores nationwide from April 2004 through November 2007.

Makit and Bakit Children's Jewelry Sets Recalled on May 29, 2008.

The clasps on the jewelry contain high amounts of lead. The recalled jewelry was sold in a variety of sets that contained necklace, bracelet and earring, or ring combinations. The item numbers on the recalled sets are: 55256; 41671; 55106; 55100; 43131; 50083; and 50694. The jewelry sets were sold nationwide at AC Moore, CVS, LTD Commodities, Marshall's, TJ Maxx, Michaels and other toy and craft supply stores from August 2007 through March 2008.

Children's Jewelry Recalled on June 3, 2008.

The jewelry contains high amounts of lead. The jewelry has UPC # 984343144040 (the necklace) and 947678164466 (the bracelet) printed on the back label. The jewelry was sold at Daiso retail stores in Washington State from October 2007 through December 2007.

Wal-Mart "Hip Charm" Key Chains Recalled on April 18, 2008, and Expanded on June 19, 2008.

The charms on the key chains contain high amounts of lead. The Illinois Attorney General received a report that one of the key chains was found in the home of a nine-month-old child who had high blood lead levels. The child was observed mouthing the key chain. The key chains were sold at Wal-Mart stores nationwide from April 2005 through June 2008.

"It's a Girl Thing" Bracelets, Necklaces and Phone Charms Recalled on July 3, 2008.

The jewelry contains high amounts of lead. The jewelry was sold by various retailers nationwide from February 2006 through June 2008.

"Faded Glory" Lip Gloss, Locket and Bracelet Sets Recalled on July 10, 2008.

The lobster claw clasp on the bracelet contains high amounts of lead. The sets were sold at Wal-Mart stores nationwide from May 2008 through June 2008.

Children's Charm Craft Kits Recalled on July 10, 2008.

The clasp in the charm craft kits contains high amounts of lead. The recall includes "Super Dooper Charms" (Item # 63403) and "Shoelace Charms" (Item # 67310). The kits were sold at various retailers nationwide from July 2007 through April 2008.

Children's Necklaces with Ballet Shoe Charms Sold with The Magical Ballet Slippers Children's Book Recalled on July 10, 2008.

The solder on the charm of the necklace contains high amounts of lead. The recalled necklace was provided with the purchase of a children's book titled The Magical Ballet Slippers, or alternatively titled Ballerina's Magical Shoes. ISBN # 1405411449 is printed on the back of the book. The book was also published in Spanish and French. The book and necklace were sold at retail chains and independent bookstores nationwide from January 2003 through June 2008.

Pendants and Candle Charms Recalled on September 3, 2008.

The recalled metal pendants and charms contain high amounts of lead. The pendants were sold separately and on candles of various colors and scents at gift shops nationwide from February 2004 through February 2008.

Children’s Ball and Heart Necklaces Recalled on October 7, 2008.

Surface coatings on these products contain high amounts of lead. These necklaces were sold at Limited Too and Justice retail stores nationwide, through the Limited Too catalog (catalog), and online at www.limitedtoo.com from May 2007 through August 2008.

Best Friends Necklace Set Sold at Claire's Stores Recalled on November 5, 2008.

The necklaces contain high amounts of lead. They were sold at Claire's Stores nationwide from April 2007 through August 2008.

Aloha 808 Trading Children's Jewelry Recalled on December 18, 2008.

The jewelry contains high amounts of lead. It was sold at small retail stores and kiosks in Honolulu, Hawaii, from April 2008 through November 2008.

Cribs, Furniture & Baby Gear

The following is a list of crib, nursery furniture and baby gear recalls issued between January 1, 2008, and December 31, 2008.

"Baby Town" Pacifiers Recalled on January 10, 2008.

These pacifiers fail to meet federal safety standards. The pacifier shield is too small and could easily enter the mouth of an infant. Also, ventilation holes are too small and not placed to allow for the insertion of a tool to remove the pacifier when lodged in the mouth of a child. Finally, the package fails to display the required warning instructing consumers not to tie a pacifier around a child's neck, which would present a strangulation hazard. The recalled pacifiers were sold in a 4-pack of assorted colors. "BabyTown" and Model # 39864 are written on the product's packaging. The pacifiers were sold at dollar stores nationwide from March 2004 through December 2007.

Tinker Bell Novelty Lamps Recalled on January 10, 2008.

The surface paint on the lamps contains high amounts of lead. The lamps were sold at electronic and appliance retailers nationwide, including Lowe's, from January 2007 through October 2007.

Baby Sterling Silver Teethers Recalled on January 31, 2008.

The hearts and cars on the teethers can break off, posing a choking hazard to infants. The teethers were sold at independent infant clothing boutiques nationwide from February 2005 through September 2006.

Children's Table and Chair Sets Recalled on February 8, 2008.

The surface paint on the children's table and chair sets contains high amounts of lead. The sets were sold online at www.netshops.com from November 2007 through December 2007.

Bassettbaby Drop-Side Cribs Recalled on February 14, 2008.

The Wendy Bellissimo Hidden Hills Collection Drop-Side Cribs have been recalled because the spindles on the drop-side of the crib could loosen, creating a gap that poses an entrapment and strangulation hazard. This recall involves the full size, drop-side crib from the Wendy Bellissimo Hidden Hills collection, Model # 5446-0504. The model number is located on the bottom rail of the headboard. The crib was sold in a Navajo Pine finish at Babies "R" Us stores nationwide from November 2007 through January 2008.

Five Models of Munire Furniture Cribs Recalled on February 28, 2008.

The cribs fail to meet the federal safety standards for cribs. The four support brackets on the mattress support springs are too long. The brackets prevent the spring from lowering to the full 26 inch minimum height in its lowest position, allowing children inside to crawl over the railing, posing a fall hazard. The recalled cribs include: Majestic Curved Top Cribs (Model # 9500); Majestic Flat Top Cribs (Model # 9000); Essex Cribs (Model # 7100); Brighton/Sussex Cribs (Model #9100); and Captiva Cribs (Model #5100). The crib model number is printed on the white label on the bottom inside of the right side rail. Only cribs with manufacture dates between November 1, 2005, and November 1, 2007, are included in the recall. The crib manufacture date is printed on either the white label near the model number or on the white label located on the bottom of the headboard. The cribs were sold at specialty juvenile product stores nationwide from November 2005 through November 2007.

Spiderman Water Bottles Recalled on February 19, 2008.

The screws under the bottle's lid can come loose and fall into the bottle, posing a choking hazard to children. The water bottles were sold at Sears stores nationwide from July 2007 through August 2007.

Infant Sling Carriers Recalled on March 11, 2008.

The aluminum rings on the Ellaroo Ring Sling baby carrier can bend or break, causing the fabric to slip through the rings and infants to fall out of the carrier. The slings were sold at juvenile product and department stores and online at www.babiesrus.com, from June 2007 through February 2008.

Metal Water Bottles Recalled on March 25, 2008.

The surface paint on the Backyard and Beyond Metal Water Bottles contains high amounts of lead. The water bottles were sold at major retailers and gift, convenience, mass merchandise and drug stores from February 2006 through February 2008.

"Beco Butterfly" Infant Carriers Recalled on April 22, 2008.

The buckles on the shoulder straps of the Beco Baby Butterfly Carriers can unexpectedly release tension, causing the strap to slip through, posing a fall hazard to the baby. The carriers were sold at specialty retail stores nationwide and online from January 2008 through February 2008.

Basketball and Flower Tables Recalled on April 24, 2008.

The basketball and flower tables are covered in surface paint that contains high amounts of lead. The tables were sold by Avon Independent Sales Representatives in Puerto Rico and the U.S. Virgin Islands from June 2007 through August 2007.

Lowe's Children's Storage Bins Recalled on May 1, 2008.

The surface paint on the storage bins contains high amounts of lead. The recalled storage bins are pastel green (Item # 226782) and pink (Item # 226781). The bins were sold nationwide at Lowe's retail stores from March 2007 to February 2008.

Playworld System Swing Sets Recalled on May 6, 2008.

The clevis bearing on the swing set can wear, causing the swing to detach and fall. The swing sets were sold nationwide by authorized dealers to daycare centers and children's learning centers from January 2007 through February 2008.

Munchkin Deluxe Bottle and Food Warmers Recalled on May 8, 2008.

The bottle and food warmers can overheat, posing a fire hazard. This recall includes the Munchkin Deluxe Bottle and Food Warmer with Pacifier Cleaning Basket 2-in-1 Design, Model #13301 and Lot # TP-1487. The warmers were sold nationwide at retail stores and through the Munchkin catalog from June 2007 to April 2008.

Bassettbaby Cribs Recalled on June 5, 2008.

The Wendy Bellissimo Hidden Hills Collection Cribs have been recalled because the space between the spindles on some cribs fails to meet federal standards and can pose an entrapment hazard to infants. The CPSC received one report of a 6-month-old baby becoming wedged between the mattress and the crib's frame. The recalled crib is Model # 5446-0521. The cribs were sold at Babies "R" Us stores nationwide from November 2007 through February 2008.

Simmons Kids Crib Mattresses Recalled on June 5, 2008.

Some of the crib mattresses can measure smaller than 27 ¼ inches wide and can create a gap between the mattress and the crib side rails that can pose an entrapment hazard to infants. The recalled mattresses include the model name Pottery Barn Kids by Simmons Kids Lullaby sold at Pottery Barn Kids from July 2006 through May 2008. Also recalled are mattresses with the model names Simmons Kids Slumber Time Evening Star Luxury Firm, Simmons Kids Baby Mattress Series 400 and Simmons Kids Baby Mattress 234 Coil Count sold at nursery furniture retailers from July 2006 through May 2008.

Playsafe Spinning Quad Merry-Go-Rounds Recalled on June 12, 2008.

The inner bearing on the merry-go-round can fail, causing the seat to suddenly drop to the ground, posing a fall hazard to children. The item was sold at Toys "R" Us stores nationwide from January 2008 through March 2008.

Adventure Play Sets and Create N Adventure Wooden Play Sets Recalled on June 10, 2008.

The hangers holding the chains for the gliders can break, causing a child to fall and suffer injuries. The recalled swing sets include Adventure Play Sets Pathfinder Swing Set (Model # 65008) and Conqueror Swing Set (Model # 65208) sold at Wal-Mart stores nationwide and online at www.walmart.com. Also included in the recall are Create N Adventure Wooden Play Sets Cedar Ridge Wooden Swing Set (Model # 30008) and Windsor Wooden Swing Set (Model # 30108) sold at Toys "R" Us stores nationwide. All the swing sets were sold from January 2008 through May 2008.

Playground Tire Swings Recalled on June 24, 2008.

The hanger clamp on the tire swing can fail, causing the tire swing to detach and posing a fall hazard to young children. The CPSC received two reports of cuts requiring stitches and one report of a fractured foot. The recall includes the following products and model numbers: Kids' Choice Arch Tire Swing Sets (Model #714-852); Kids' Choice Arch Tire Swing Extension (Model #714-852-X); and Kids' Choice Arch Tire Swing Swivel Replacement (Model #278). The swings were sold to schools, parks and municipalities nationwide from February 1995 through March 2008.

Stanley Furniture 2nd Nature Built to Grow Cribs Recalled on June 26, 2008.

The cribs fail to meet the federal safety standard for crib dimensions. When the mattress support is in the middle setting, the space between the mattress and the crib could be too wide, posing an entrapment hazard to infants. The recall includes full size 2nd Nature Built to Grow Cribs with Model # 353-14-220. The cribs were sold at department and furniture stores from March 2006 through December 2007.

Approximately 320,000 Jardine Cribs Recalled on June 24, 2008.

The wooden crib slats and spindles can break, creating a gap that poses an entrapment and strangulation hazard to infants. The CPSC received four reports of entrapments in the space created by a broken slat or spindle. Two of the children had abrasions and bruising. Recalled Jardine cribs include the following model numbers, which can be found printed on the inside of the bottom rail of the headboard or footboard:

Model #	Description	First Sold
BC-23	Drop Side Blue Spindle Crib	8/2004
BC-36B	Drop Side Light Blue Spindle Crib	8/2005
BC-36G	Drop Side Sage Spindle Crib	7/2005
BC-36P	Drop Side Pink Spindle Crib	7/2005
BC-007	Hilton Drop Side Cherry Single Crib	1/2002
BC-010	Windsor Drop Side Cherry Flat Panel Crib	1/2002
BC-010C	Windsor Drop Side Cherry Flat Panel Crib	11/2003
BC-010HP	Windsor Drop Side Oak/Honey Pine Crib	11/2003
BC-010W	Hilton Drop Side White Full Panel Crib	7/2002
BC-017	Windsor Drop Side Dark Pine Single Crib	1/2002
BC-107C	Hilton Drop Side Cherry Single Crib	3/2005
BC-107CR	Windsor Cherry Single Sleigh Crib	4/2007
BC-110C	Berkley Drop Side Cherry Flat Panel Single Crib	3/2005
BC-110HP	Windsor Drop Side Honey Pine/Honey Single Crib	3/2005
BC-110W	Berkley Drop Side White Flat Panel Single Crib	3/2005
DA617BC	Wicker 3-in-1 White Crib	1/2002
DA620BC	Haven 3-in-1 Oak/Dark Pine Crib	5/2002
DA770BC	4-in-1 White Convertible Crib	1/2004
DV730N	Natural Lifetime Crib	9/2003
DV730W	White Lifetime Crib	8/2003
DV830-N	Natural Lifetime Crib	11/2004
DV830-W	White Lifetime Crib	11/2004
0113B00	Drop Side Natural Spindle Crib	7/2006
0113K00	Drop Side Mahogany Spindle Crib	6/2006
0303B00	Berkley Natural Lifetime Crib	9/2005
0303C00	Berkley White Lifetime Crib	8/2005
0303G00	Berkley Cherry Lifetime Crib	5/2005
0309K00	Positano Mahogany Lifetime Crib	4/2006

The cribs were sold at KidsWorld, Geoffrey Stores, Toys "R" Us, and Babies "R" Us stores nationwide and online at www.babiesrus.com from January 2002 through May 2008 for between $150 and $300. One model, 0309K00 Mahogany Positano Lifetime Crib, retailed for $450. If you have one of these cribs, stop using it immediately. Contact Jardine at 1-800-646-4106 or visit www.jardinecribreCALL.com to receive a full credit toward the purchase of a new crib.

Bayside Furnishings LaJolla Boat Bed and Pirates of the Caribbean Twin Trundle Beds Recalled on July 3, 2008.

This product is responsible for the death of a 22-month-old boy. He strangled when the lid of the toy chest on the LaJolla Boat Bed fell on the back of his head.

The lid supports on the toys chests, attached to the beds as a footboard, fail to prevent the lid from closing too quickly, posing an entrapment and strangulation hazard to young children. The beds were sold at Costco and furniture retail stores nationwide and online at www.costco.com from January 2006 through May 2008.

It's My Binky Personalized Pacifiers Recalled on July 22, 2008.

The pacifier button, ring handle and shield with nipple can detach, posing a choking hazard to infants. The recalled pacifiers have "Japlo" imprinted on the front of the pacifier shield at the bottom center. The pacifiers were sold at Nordstrom and baby boutique retail stores nationwide and online at www.itsmybinky.com from February 2006 through June 2008.

Mother Hubbard Cupboards Cribs Recalled on August 5, 2008.

The cribs fail to meet the federal safety standard. The distance between the mattress support bracket in the lowest position and the top of the side rail in the highest position is less than the required 26 inches, posing a fall hazard to children who can climb over the railing. The recall includes the following models of full-size cribs: the "Enchantment" (Model # 210); the "Hush a Bye" (Model # 215); the "Once Upon a Time" (Model # 320); and the "Rock a Bye" (Model # 1900-350). Only date codes from 0306 through 0308 are included in the recall. The model number and date code are printed on the label located on the bottom inside of the right side. The cribs were sold at juvenile product stores from March 2006 through March 2008.

Baby Appleseed Davenport Cribs Recalled on August 5, 2008.

The cribs fail to meet the federal safety standard. They have a two mattress support system—a metal one and a wooden one. The distance between the secondary mattress support in the lowest position and the top of the side rail in the highest position is less than the required 26 inches, posing a fall hazard to children who can climb over the railing. The recall includes crib models that begin with the model number 273-xxxx-xxxx and have manufacture dates on or before August 2007 printed on a label located on the right side of the lower inner panel of the crib. Newer Davenport cribs with model numbers 244-xxxx-xxxx that have one mattress support are not included in the recall. The cribs were sold at specialty juvenile product stores nationwide from December 2006 through September 2007.

Phil & Teds Strollers Recalled on August 28, 2008.

The strollers' hinge locking mechanism poses a laceration hazard to the user folding and unfolding the strollers. The recall covers the Phil & Teds e3 Single Buggy, the e3 Twin Buggy and the Sport v1 Single Buggy Strollers. The strollers were sold at baby furniture and baby products stores nationwide from August 2003 through August 2008.

Modified Model

Recalled Model

Approximately 900,000 Simplicity, Graco and Winnie the Pooh 3-in-1 and 4-in-1 Bassinets Recalled on August 28, 2008, and Expanded on September 11, 2008, and September 25, 2008.

This product is responsible for the suffocation deaths of two babies.

The fabric on one side of the recalled bassinets is attached with Velcro. The fabric is removable on that side, which allows someone to use the bassinet in the co-sleeping position. This creates a dangerous gap between the mattress and the lower supporting bar that a child can slip through and suffocate. Recalled bassinets include the following model numbers, which can be found on a label on the bottom of the mattress support:

3000	3010	3011
3012	3013	3014
3015	3016	3017
3020	3025	3026
3027	3030	3040
3045	3046	3047
3050	3060	3070
3111	3112	3122
343-8363	343-8399	5730
5750	8393	9250
TD2500

The bassinets were sold during 2001 through 2008 at Wal-Mart, Toys "R" Us, Babies "R" Us, Kmart, Burlington Coat Factory (Baby Depot), Big Lots!, Target, JC Penney, AAFES, Amazon.com, Bed Bath and Beyond, One Step Ahead, CSN Stores, Fingerhut Direct Marketing, Kohl's, Shopko, USA Baby, Buy Buy Baby Garden City, Frogs and Lily Pads, Sweet Pea Décor and Value City.

If you have one of these bassinets, stop using it immediately. You can return this bassinet for a full store credit or refund. The Illinois Attorney General's Office may be able to determine where you purchased it. We can also help to make sure that you receive the full store credit or refund to which you are entitled. Please call our Product Recall Hotline at 1-888-414-7678 (TTY: 1-800-964-3013) or e-mail us at recalls@atg.state.il.us with questions or concerns.

Yayita Baby Hammocks Recalled on August 29, 2008.

The hammock can flip over, posing a serious fall and strangulation hazard to infants who can become trapped in the seat's restraint straps while upside down. "La Siesta" is printed on a tag located below the restraint straps. Model # YABP-1 is printed on a white tag sewn into the hammock's side seam. The hammock was sold in FlagHouse Inc.'s catalog, and online at www.flaghouse.com, and at BJ Wholesale Club's Web site at www.bjs.com, from September 2007 through August 2008.

Optave Inc. Action Baby Carriers Recalled on September 3, 2008.

The baby carrier's chest strap can detach from the shoulder straps, posing a fall hazard to the baby. The carriers were sold at specialty retail stores nationwide and online from May 2008 through June 2008.

Pottery Barn Children's Metal Water Bottles Recalled on September 16, 2008.

The sip top on the water bottles can pull off, posing a choking hazard to young children. These water bottles were sold at Pottery Barn Kids' stores nationwide, Pottery Barn Kids' catalog, and online at www.potterybarnkids.com from January 2007 through August 2008.

Harry Potter Bookends Recalled on September 23, 2008.

The paint on the bookends contains high amounts of lead. This recall includes poly-stone bookends painted and shaped in the characters of the Harry Potter book series. Bookend characters include Harry Potter, Hedwig and Hermione, and Crookshank. The bookends were sold at elementary school fundraising programs, discount and dollar stores nationwide from June 2004 through January 2006.

Approximately 600,000 Simplicity Cribs Recalled on September 17, 2008.

The drop-side can come off its tracks and detach. This creates a dangerous gap between the crib slats and the mattress. Infants and small children can be trapped in the gap and suffocate. Recalled cribs include those with a model number found in Step #1 and a manufacturer code that ends in one of the combinations found in Step #2. Both numbers can be found on an envelope attached to the mattress support rails, or on a label attached to the interior side of the headboard. Only cribs with the model number and the manufacturer code listed below are covered by the recall.

Step #1 - Recalled Model Numbers

8620	8745	8748
8755	8756	8778
8810	8994

Step #2 - Recalled Manufacturer Codes

05DH	06DH	07DH
05GB	06GB	07GB

Some of the recalled cribs have a model name listed below. However, the model number is the only way to definitively tell if your crib is recalled:

- Aspen
- Gabrielle
- Providence
- Crib-N-Changer Combo
- Camille
- Shenandoah

The cribs were sold at department stores, children’s stores and mass merchandisers nationwide from January 2005 through August 2008 for between $150 and $300. Retailers include Target, Wal-Mart, Babies "R" Us, Burlington Coat Factory (Baby Depot), K’s Merchandise, Meijer, Nebraska Furniture Mart, Shopko and AAFES.

If you have one of these cribs, stop using it immediately. You can return this crib for a full store credit or refund. The Illinois Attorney General’s Office may be able to determine where you purchased it. We can also help to make sure that you receive the full store credit or refund to which you are entitled. Please call our Product Recall Hotline at 1-888-414-7678 (TTY: 1-800-964-3013) or e-mail us at recalls@atg.state.il.us with questions or concerns.

Your Simplicity crib may be subject to recalls not included in this Guide. Please call us for more information.

Baby Walkers Recalled on October 16, 2008.

The walkers violate the baby walker voluntary standard and can fit through a standard doorway and are not designed to stop at the edge of a step. Babies using these walkers can be seriously injured or killed. The recalled walkers were sold for babies 6 months and older. "My Way Corp" is printed on a sticker on the front of the walker. The walkers were sold at independent discount stores in Puerto Rico from November 2004 through March 2008.

Playkids U.S.A. Convertible Cribs Recalled October 16, 2008.

This product is responsible for the death of a 5-month-old infant who became trapped between the mattress and the stationary side rail of the convertible crib and suffocated.

The sides of the convertible crib are made of a mesh that expands, creating a gap between the mattress and the side through which an infant can slip. This poses suffocation and entrapment hazards for young children. This recall includes the Playkids U.S.A. convertible crib/playpen/bassinet/bed with Model # PLK-909. "Playkids U.S.A." can be found on the packaging and on a label sewn into the side of the crib. The model number can be found on the packaging. The convertible cribs have a drop-side rail, a stationary side rail, a canopy assembly, and a bassinet. The sides of the convertible crib, the mattress support, the bassinet, the canopy and the bedskirt are covered in fabric and mesh. The fabric and the mesh come in a variety of colors and patterns. These cribs were sold at juvenile product retailers in New York from March 2007 through September 2008.

Approximately 600,000 Delta Enterprise Drop-Side Cribs Recalled on October 21, 2008.

This product is responsible for the death of one child.

The drop side of the crib can detach if the "spring peg" is defective. The pegs are located in the base of each leg. A defective peg can cause the drop side to detach and can create a dangerous gap between the crib slats and the mattress. Infants and small children can be trapped in the gap and suffocate. The recalled cribs have the following features, which are listed on a label that is affixed to the top of the mattress support board:

1. Made in China.
2. Manufactured prior to 2006.
3. Have one of the model numbers listed in the chart below:

4340	4343	4520
4600	4620	4624
4625	4629	4660
4665	4720	4750
4751	4850	4855
4857	4880	4920
4925-2	4925-2B	4925-6
4980	8605

The cribs were sold by major retailers nationwide from January 2000 through January 2007 for between $33 and $200. If you have one of these cribs, stop using it immediately. Call Delta at 1-800-816-5304 or visit www.cribrecallcenter.com to receive a free repair kit.

Approximately 985,000 Delta Enterprise Drop-Side Cribs Recalled on October 21, 2008.

This product is responsible for the death of one child.

The drop side of the crib can detach if the "safety peg" is defective or missing. The pegs are located in the base of each leg. If they are defective or missing, the drop side can detach and can create a dangerous gap between the crib slats and the mattress. Infants and small children can be trapped in the gap and suffocate.

The recalled cribs have the following features, which are listed on a label that is affixed to the top of the mattress support board:

1. Made in Taiwan or Indonesia.
2. Manufactured from 1995 through December 2005, except for Model Number 4624, which was manufactured in 2007.
3. Have one of the model numbers listed in the chart below:

4320	4340	4500
4520	4530	4532
4540	4542	4550
4551	4580	4600
4620	4624*	4640
4660	4720	4735
4742	4750	4760
4770	4780	4790
4820	4840	4850
4860	4880	4890
4892	4900	4910
4920	4925-2	4925-6
4930	4940	4943
4944	4947	4948
4949	4950	4958
4963	4968	4969
4980

The cribs were sold by major retailers, including Wal-Mart, Kmart and online at www.target.com from January 1995 through September 2007 for about $100. If you have one of these cribs, you should stop using it immediately. Call Delta at 1-800-816-5304 or visit www.cribrecallcenter.com to receive a free repair kit.

*Production dates 01/06 to 11/07.

Production dates 01/95 to 12/00.

Phil and Teds Dash Buggy Strollers
Recalled on December 17, 2008.

The frame handle could fail to latch properly and break, posing a fall hazard to young children. The strollers were sold at various independent juvenile specialty stores and online from July 2008 through September 2008.

12 Models of Munire "Newport Rubbed
Black" Cribs and Matching Furniture
Recalled on December 23, 2008.

The red paint underneath the black finish on the cribs and matching furniture contains high amounts of lead. Approximately 3,000 cribs and 6,000 matching furniture pieces are included in the recall. Munire received one report of a child ingesting paint who was later diagnosed with lead poisoning. The cribs and furniture were sold at specialty furniture stores nationwide from April 2006 through November 2008.

95,000 Evenflo Majestic High Chairs Recalled on December 18, 2008.

Plastic caps and metal screws on both sides of the high chair can loosen and fall out, which causes the seatback to suddenly fall back or detach from the high chair. Children can fall out or collide with objects and suffer broken bones, abrasions, cuts and bruises.

Evenflo received 140 reports of seatbacks reclining, falling back and/or detaching unexpectedly, which resulted in 47 reports of bumps and bruises to the head, 2 reports of broken bones, and at least 45 reports of other injuries including abrasions, cuts and bruises. Evenflo received more than 1,000 reports of plastic caps and screws falling out of high chairs, including 7 reports of caps and screws found in children's hands or mouths that were removed before choking occurred.

Included in the recall are Evenflo Majestic High Chairs made before January 23, 2007 that have the following model numbers: 3001395A; 3001583; 3001633A; 3001669; 3001700A; 3001713; 3001713A; 3001730A; 3001732; 3001732A; 3001733; 3001742; 3001742A and 3001756. The production date and model number can be found on the white label on the seatback.

The high chairs were sold at juvenile product and mass merchandise stores nationwide, including Toys "R" Us, Babies "R" Us, Burlington Coat Factory, Shopko, and online at www.walmart.com, from January 2006 through May 2007 for between $80 and $110.

Clothing

The following is a list of children's clothing recalls issued between January 1, 2008 and December 31, 2008.

Girls' Hooded Jackets with Drawstrings Recalled on January 31, 2008.

The velour jackets have a drawstring through the hood, posing a strangulation hazard to children. The jackets were sold at Marshalls stores nationwide from August 2007 through November 2007.

Bonafide Love Hooded Children’s Sweatshirts Recalled on February 6, 2008.

The garments have a drawstring through the hood, posing a strangulation hazard to children. The sweatshirts were sold at Nordstrom retail stores nationwide from November 2007 through December 2007.

Karl Kani Boys’ Fleece Hoody Sweatshirts Recalled on February 13, 2008.

The garments have a drawstring through the hood, posing a strangulation hazard to children. The sweatshirts were sold at A&E Stores, DD Discount, Forman Mills, the Marmaxx Groups, and Suit Mart Stores nationwide from July 2007 through October 2007.

Girls' Hooded Sweatshirts with Drawstrings Recalled on March 5, 2008.

The "Red Hot Chili Steppers" and "Powder Puffs Touch League" sweatshirt jackets have a drawstring through the hood, posing a strangulation hazard to children. The sweatshirts were sold at Marshalls stores and specialty children's clothing retailers nationwide from July 2007 through September 2007.

Nordstrom Children’s Hooded Sweatshirts Recalled on March 11, 2008.

The Micros boys’ cotton jackets have a drawstring through the hood, posing a strangulation hazard to children. The jackets were sold at Nordstrom stores nationwide from November 2007 through December 2007.

Boys’ Hooded Sweatshirts with Drawstrings Recalled on March 28, 2008.

The sweatshirts have a drawstring through the hood, posing a strangulation hazard to children. The sweatshirts were sold at A.J. Wright, Bealls Outlet, A&E Stores, and Happy Days Stores nationwide from October 2007 through November 2007.

Brents-Riordan Inc. Hooded Sweatshirts Recalled on April 2, 2008.

The hooded sweatshirts have a drawstring through the hood, posing a strangulation hazard to children. The sweatshirts were sold at various retail stores nationwide from July 2007 through December 2007.

Infant Santa Outfits Recalled on April 24, 2008.

The pom poms on the 2006 and 2007 outfit and the snaps on the 2007 outfit can detach, posing a choking hazard to young children. The outfits were sold by Avon Independent Sales Representatives in Puerto Rico and the U.S. Virgin Islands from August 2006 through November 2007.

Daiso Rain Ponchos with Drawstrings
Recalled on May 12, 2008.

The drawstring in the poncho's hood poses a strangulation hazard. The ponchos were sold at Daiso retail stores in California and Washington State from February 2007 through November 2007.

Squeeze Kids Girls' Corduroy Jackets with Drawstrings Recalled on May 15, 2008.

The drawstring in the jacket's hood poses a strangulation hazard. The jackets were sold nationwide at TJ Maxx retail stores in January 2007.

Lil' Snugglers Children's Blankets Recalled on May 20, 2008.

The satin edge of the blankets can come loose, posing a strangulation hazard. The blankets were sold nationwide at specialty stores and online from April 2005 through December 2007.

Pirates of the Caribbean Sleeping Bags Recalled on May 22, 2008.

The surface paint on the zipper of the sleeping bags contains high amounts of lead. The sleeping bags were sold nationwide at Disney retail stores from April 2007 through October 2007.

Rawlings Batting Helmets recalled on May 27, 2008.

The surface paint on the helmets contains high amounts of lead. The helmets were sold nationwide at sporting goods stores from July 2007 through November 2007.

Boy's Hooded Zip Fleece
Sweatshirts Recalled on May 28, 2008.

The drawstrings in the sweatshirt hoods pose a strangulation hazard. The sweatshirts were sold nationwide at Tilly's and Bob's stores from October 2007 through December 2007.

Children's Place Camouflage Pajama Sets Recalled on June 10, 2008.

The screen print on the shirt contains high amounts of lead. The pajamas were sold at The Children's Place stores nationwide and online at www.childrensplace.com from December 2006 through January 2008.

Sara Lynn Togs Children's Overalls Recalled on June 12, 2008.

The buttons on the shoulder straps can detach, posing a choking hazard to young children. The overalls were sold at college bookstores, fan stores, children's boutiques, and gift shops nationwide from March 2007 through February 2008.

Nordstrom's Girls' Sandals Recalled on June 24, 2008.

The Cadence-Lea and Trio-Lea Girls' Sandals have flower embellishments on the sandals that can detach, posing a choking hazard to young children. The sandals were sold at Nordstrom stores nationwide from March 2008 through May 2008.

Children's Jackets and Hoodies with Drawstrings Recalled on June 27, 2008.

The sun block jackets and hoodies have a drawstring through the hood, posing a strangulation hazard to children. The hoodies were sold in Coolibar's catalog and online at www.coolibar.com from March 2005 through April 2008 . The jackets were sold in Coolibar's catalog and online at www.coolibar.com from February 2008 through April 2008.

Taggies Sleep 'n Play Infant Garments Recalled on July 1, 2008.

The snaps on these garments can detach, posing a choking hazard to young children. The garments were sold at Buy Buy Baby, Dillard's, Nordstrom, and other specialty stores and online nationwide from June 2007 through May 2008.

BongoCheetah Girls Jackets Recalled on August 6, 2008.

The garments have a drawstring through the hood, posing a strangulation hazard to children. The jackets were sold at Marshalls stores nationwide from November 2007 through August 2008.

Request Jeans Drawstring Hoodies Recalled on August 6, 2008.

The hoodies have a drawstring through the hood, posing a strangulation hazard to children. The hoodies were sold at mass merchandisers and at other retail stores nationwide from January 2007 through March 2007.

Raw Blue Sportswear Hooded Sweatshirts Recalled on August 6, 2008.

The sweatshirts have a drawstring through the hood, posing a strangulation hazard to children. The sweatshirts were sold at TJ Maxx, Mega Trends, Moonstone Shirts and MP Trading stores nationwide from July 2007 through December 2007.

Sun Smarties Children's Board Skirts Recalled on August 12, 2008.

The paint on the grommets (the metal ring inserted into a hole in the fabric to prevent the material from fraying around the hole) of the skirts contains high amounts of lead. The skirts were sold online at www.onestepahead.com from May 1, 2008, through May 9, 2008.

Hooded Sweatshirts and Jackets Imported by Orioxi Recalled on August 28, 2008.

The sweatshirts and jackets have a drawstring through the hood, posing a strangulation hazard to children. The sweatshirts and jackets were sold at "Shirt Off My Back" retail stores in Colorado, Wyoming and Michigan from September 2005 through May 2008.

Girls' Sandals Recalled on October 8, 2008.

The ornamental flowers on the sandals can detach, posing a choking hazard to young children. The recalled girls' sandals are leather with attached leather flowers and were sold under the Kids Feet name. The sandals are white or white with pink soles. The sandals were sold in girls' sizes 5 through 12. The shoes were sold by Rack Room Shoes stores nationwide from February 2008 through June 2008.

Empress Arts Children's Hooded Sweatshirts Recalled on September 2, 2008.

The sweaters have drawstrings through the hood, posing a strangulation or entrapment hazard to children. The drawstrings can catch on playground equipment, fences or tree branches. The sweatshirts were sold at specialty children's stores nationwide from August 2006 through April 2008.

Circo Rosette Bobbie Socks Recalled on September 3, 2008.

The ribbon on the sock can detach, posing a choking hazard to young children. These socks were sold at Target stores nationwide from January 2007 through July 2008.

Fall 2007 Carter's Kids Clothing Advisory Issued on October 24, 2008.

Some babies and infants have developed rashes on the upper back after wearing Carter's clothing with heat-transferred, or "tag-less," labels. The garments were sold at Carter's retail stores and department and national chain stores.

Young Colors Children’s Hooded Jackets Recalled on November 19, 2008.

The jackets have drawstrings through the hood and waist, posing a strangulation and entanglement hazard to children. The jackets were sold at specialty children’s stores nationwide from April 2004 through September 2007.

JC Penney Arizona Newborn and Infant Denim Pants Recalled on November 25, 2008.

The metal snap at the waist can detach, posing a choking hazard to infants. The pants were sold at JC Penney stores nationwide and online at www.jcp.com from July 2008 through October 2008.

Reebok-CCM Hockey Helmets Recalled on December 2, 2008.

The helmet’s chinstrap can unexpectedly disengage while in use. If this happens, the helmet can fall off, posing a head and neck injury risk to consumers. The helmets were sold at sporting goods stores nationwide and online from May 2008 through July 2008.

Meijer Toddler Girl’s Hat and Mitten Sets Recalled on December 4, 2008.

Tiny, powerful magnets inside the hat can fall out. Magnets found by young children can be swallowed or aspirated. If more than one magnet is swallowed, the magnets can attract to each other and cause intestinal perforation or blockage, which can be fatal if not treated immediately. The sets were sold at Meijer stores in Michigan, Illinois, Indiana, Ohio and Kentucky from August 2008 through October 2008.

Foursquare Hooded Jackets Recalled on December 23, 2008.

The jackets have a drawstring through the hood, posing a strangulation hazard to children. The jackets were sold at snowboard, ski and sportswear stores nationwide from June 2008 through November 2008.

Ruff Hewn Boy's Reversible Vests Recalled on December 30, 2008.

The zipper tabs on these vests can detach, posing a choking hazard to children. The vests were sold at Bon-Ton, Bergner's, Boston Store, Elder-Beerman, Herberger's, Younkers, and Carson Pirie Scott stores nationwide and Parisian in the Detroit area from July 2008 through November 2008.

ATVs & Bicycles

The following is a list of ATV and bicycle recalls issued between January 1, 2008 and December 31, 2008.

Children's Trailer Bicycles Recalled on January 8, 2008.

The Mongoose "Alley Cat," the InStep "Pathfinder," and the Schwinn "Run About" children's trailer bicycles have a coupler connecting the children's trailer bicycle to the adult's bicycle. The coupler has welds that can fail, posing a fall hazard to children. There has been one report of a coupler failing, resulting in a fall and abrasions to the rider. The recall includes Model Numbers 12-PF250, 13-SC250, 13-SC350 and M5101. The model number is located on the lower seat tube of the frame. All three trailer bicycles were sold at bicycle stores and retailers nationwide from January 2007 through August 2007.

Trek MT220 Girls' Bicycles Recalled on February 7, 2008.

The bicycle frame can break during use, causing the rider to lose control and suffer injuries. This recall includes Trek girls' bicycles Model # MT220 and model years 2005 (light metallic blue), 2006 (metallic silver and metallic purple or pink and pearl white), and 2007 (pink and white pearl or metallic purple). The model name is printed on the frame of the bicycle. Model year 2008 bicycles are not included in this recall. The recalled bicycles were sold at authorized Trek dealers nationwide from April 2004 through June 2007.

Arctic Cat Youth ATVs Recalled on June 24, 2008.

Arctic Cat is recalling 6,000 units of Model Year 2008 Arctic Cat 50cc and 90cc All-Terrain Vehicles because the speed controller on the recalled ATVs could fail to return to the idle position when the throttle lever is released, or the speed controller could fail to be at idle on startup. This could result in loss of vehicle control, which could result in serious injury or death to the rider. The ATVs were sold at Arctic Cat dealerships nationwide from July 2007 through June 2008.

SunL Group SLA90 Youth All Terrain Vehicles Recalled on July 17, 2008.

The youth ATV lacks front brakes, a manual fuel shut-off, and padding to cover the sharp edges on the handlebar assembly. Additionally, the vehicle is sold without a tire pressure gauge or adequate flag pole bracket. These defects could lead to young drivers losing control of the ATVs, posing a risk of serious injuries or death. The ATVs were sold at SunL Group dealers nationwide and online from May 2005 through March 2007.

Razor PowerWing Three-Wheeled Scooters Recalled on September 25, 2008.

The undersides of the foot platforms can have sharp edges, posing a laceration hazard to children. Razor has received 10 reports of Achilles tendon or ankle lacerations, including 4 consumers who required tendon surgery and 3 who needed stitches. The PowerWing is a three-wheeled scooter, which was sold in either black or silver. The recall includes products with serial numbers beginning with: Y708; Y709; Y710; Y711; Y712; Y801; Y802; Y803; Y804; Y805; Y806; Y807; and Y808. The serial number is located on the bottom of the scooter near the front wheel. Products with an oval sticker next to the serial number with a "V" followed by any letter (example VE, VF, VG, etc.) are not included in the recall. The scooters were sold at authorized retailers nationwide and online from October 2007 through September 2008.

Razor Dirt Quad Electric Powered Ride-On Vehicles Recalled on September 25, 2008.

The control module for the throttle can fail and cause the electric ride-on vehicle to unexpectedly surge forward, posing a risk of injury to the user or a bystander. Razor has received 60 reports of the vehicles unexpectedly surging forward, including 2 reports of injuries. This recall includes Razor Dirt Quad electrically powered ride-on vehicles. Product ID numbers included in the recall begin with 103110-01 or 103110-02. The product ID numbers are located on the bar code affixed to the right step of the vehicle, on the charger and on the retail packaging. Product ID numbers beginning with 103110-03 or later are not included in this recall. The ride-on vehicles were sold at authorized dealers nationwide from August 2006 through September 2007.

Can-Am Youth All-Terrain Vehicles Recalled on October 1, 2008.

If the rider is ejected and the cord strap is pulled, the shutoff switch can fail to disable the engine. The ATV can operate uncontrolled, until the engine returns to idle, and cause a collision with bystanders, vehicles or other objects. This poses a serious risk of injury. The recall includes Model Year 2008-2009 Can-Am DS 90 X ATVs. The model name can be located on the side panels. The ATV is black with yellow and orange trim. The ATVs were sold at authorized Can-Am dealers nationwide from August 2007 through September 2008.

2008
Children's Product Recalls
Resources

What You Should Know About Exposure to Lead

What is lead?

- Lead is a metal that is found in many places. You can't always see lead, even when it's present in high amounts in substances like paint, dust or dirt.

What damage is done by lead?

- Lead in the body is not safe at any level. Even very small amounts of lead can permanently damage the brain as it develops. The only way to prevent damage from lead is to prevent exposure to lead.
- Lead makes it harder for a child to learn and causes behavior problems.
- Damage done by small amounts of lead may be hard to see. Most children who get lead in their body do not have any physical symptoms.

Where is lead found?

- Children are often exposed to lead in their own homes and at places they visit.
- Lead was added to paint until 1978. Most older homes have paint that contains lead. In the United States, lead is in paint in:
 - 87 percent of homes built before 1940,
 - 69 percent of homes built from 1940 to 1959 and
 - 24 percent of homes built from 1960 to 1977.
- Lead gets into dust and dirt. Children eat lead by getting lead on their hands and then putting their hands in their mouth.
- High amounts of lead in dust occur when paint is chipping or peeling or when paint is disturbed during repairs.
- Lead is sometimes found in toy jewelry and other products.

What can I do to protect my child?

- Learn if you have lead in your home. Before you sign a lease, ask the landlord about lead. Before you buy a home, have it inspected for lead.
 - If your home was built before 1978 or you don't know when it was built, assume it has lead.
- Painted surfaces should be kept in good repair. Do not disturb paint unless you and your family are protected from the dust that will occur during repairs. Repairs not done safely can make the problem worse. Learn how to protect your family before work begins by getting information from the sources below.
- Have your child's blood lead level checked. A blood lead test at 1 and 2 years of age is required for children who could be exposed to lead. Also, whenever new exposures to lead may have occurred, a blood lead test should be considered.

For more information, please contact:

- Illinois Department of Public Health, phone 866-909-3572 or 217-782-3517 (for hearing impaired use only TTY 800-547-0466)
- Your local health department
- Access information on the Web at <http://sis.nlm.nih.gov/enviro/lead.html>

Blood Lead Testing Clinics in Illinois

Parents and caregivers who are concerned about lead poisoning should talk to their doctor immediately or contact the Illinois Department of Public Health at 1-866-909-3572 (TTY: 1-800-547-0466). The following is a list of public health clinics that offer free or low cost blood lead tests. This information is provided by the Lead Safe Housing Initiative of the Civitas ChildLaw Center, Loyola University Chicago.

ALL KIDS (for children covered by Illinois All Kids Healthcare)
Health Benefits and All Kids Help Line
1-866-ALL-KIDS or
1-866-255-5437
TTY: 1-877-204-1012
www.allkids.com

CHICAGO

Parents can also call the Chicago Department of Public Health at (312) 747-LEAD for more information on where to go to have a child tested for lead.

Englewood Health Clinic

641 W. 63rd Street
(312) 747-7831

Uptown Health Clinic

845 W. Wilson
(312) 744-1938

Roseland Health Clinic

200 E. 115th Street
(312) 747-9500

Lower West Side Health Clinic

1713 S. Ashland
(312) 746-5157

COOK COUNTY

Cook County Department of Public Health

Lead Poisoning Prevention Unit
1010 Lake Street
Oak Park, IL 60301
708) 492-2076
www.cookcountypublichealth.org

SKOKIE

Skokie Health Department

5127 Oakton Street
Skokie, IL 60077
(847) 673-0500
www.skokie.org/health

STICKNEY

Stickney Public Health Department

6721 W. 40th Street

Stickney, IL 60402

(708) 788-9100

www.stickneypublichealthdistrict.org

KANE COUNTY

Kane County Health Department

1240 N. Highland Avenue

Aurora, IL 60506

(630) 208-3801

www.kanehealth.com

KANKAKEE COUNTY

Kankakee County Health Department

2930 W. Station Street

Kankakee, IL 60901

(815) 937-3560

www.kankakeehealth.org

MACON COUNTY

Macon County Health Department

1221 E. Condit Street

Decatur, IL 62521

(217) 423-6988

www.maconcountyhealth.org

PEORIA COUNTY

Peoria County Health Department

2116 N. Sheridan Road

Peoria, IL 61604

(309) 679-6000

www.peoriacounty.org/pcchd

ROCK ISLAND COUNTY

Rock Island County Health Department

2112 25th Avenue

Rock Island, IL 61201

(309) 793-1955

www.co.rock-island.il.us/health

ST. CLAIR COUNTY

St. Clair County Health Department

19 Public Square, Suite 150

Belleville, IL 62220

(618) 233-7703

www.health.co.st-clair.il.us

SANGAMON COUNTY
Sangamon County Public Health Clinic
2501 N. Dirksen Parkway
Springfield, IL 62702
(217) 535-3102
www.scdph.org

STEPHENSON COUNTY
Stephenson County Health Department
10 W. Linden Street
Freeport, IL 61032
(815) 235-8271
www.co.stephenson.il.us/health

VERMILION COUNTY
Vermilion County Health Department
200 S. College Street, Suite A
Danville, IL 61832
(217) 431-2662
www.vchd.org

WILL COUNTY
Will County Health Department
1106 Neal Avenue
Joliet, IL 60433
(815) 727-8670
www.willcountyhealth.org

WINNEBAGO COUNTY
Winnebago County Health Department
401 Division Street
Rockford, IL 61104
(815) 720-4000
www.wchd.org

Illinois Department of Public Health

Pediatric Lead Poisoning High-Risk ZIP Code Areas

Adams 62301 62320 62324 62339 62346 62348 62349 62365	Christian 62083 62510 62517 62540 62546 62555 62556 62557 62567 62570	DuPage 60519 Edgar 61917 61924 61932 61933 61940 61944 61949 Edwards 62420 62806 62815 62818 Effingham None Fayette 62458 62880 62885 Ford 60919 60933 60936 60946 60952 60957 60959 60962 61773 Franklin 62812 62819 62822 62825 62874 62884 62891 62896 62983 62999 Fulton 61415 61427 61431 61432 61441 61477 61482 61484 61501 61519 61520 61524 61531 61542 61543 61544 61563 Gallatin 62934 Greene 62016 62027 62044 62050 62054 62078 62081 62082 62092	Grundy 60437 60474 Hamilton 62817 62828 62829 62859 Hancock 61450 62311 62313 62316 62318 62321 62330 62334 62336 62354 62367 62373 62379 62380 Hardin 62919 62982 Henderson 61418 61425 61454 61460 61469 61471 61480 Henry 61234 61235 61238 61274 61413 61419 61434 61443 61468 61490 Iroquois 60911 60912 60924 60926 60930 60931 60938 60945 60951 60953 60955 60966 60967 60968 60973	Jefferson 62883 Jersey 62030 62063 Jo Daviess 61028 61075 61085 61087 Johnson 62908 62923 Kane 60120 60505 Kankakee 60901 60910 60917 60954 60969 Kendall None Knox 61401 61410 61414 61436 61439 61458 61467 61474 61485 61489 61572 Lake 60040 La Salle 60470 60518 60531 61301 61316 61321 61325 61332 61334 61342 61348 61354 61358 61364 61370 61372 Lawrence 62439 62460 62466 Lee 60553 61006 61031 61042 61310 61318 61324 61331 61353 61378	Livingston 60420 60460 60920 60921 60929 60934 61311 61313 61333 61740 61741 61743 61769 61775 Logan 62512 62518 62519 62548 62543 62635 62643 62666 62671 Macon 62514 62521 62522 62523 62526 62537 62551 Macoupin 62009 62033 62069 62085 62088 62093 62626 62630 62640 62649 62672 62674 62685 62686 62690 Madison 62002 62048 62058 62060 61348 62084 62090 62095 Marion None Marshall 61369 61377 61424 61537 61541 Mason 62617 62633 62644 62655 62664 62682	Massac 62953 McDonough 61411 61416 61420 61422 61438 61440 61470 61475 62374 McHenry 60034 McLean 61701 61720 61722 61724 61728 61730 61731 61737 61770 Menard 62642 62673 62688 Mercer 61231 61260 61263 61276 61465 61466 61476 61486 Monroe None Montgomery 62015 62019 62032 62049 62051 62056 62075 62077 62089 62091 62094 62538 Morgan 62601 62628 62631 62692 62695 Moultrie 61937 Ogle 61007 61030 61047 61049 61054 61064 61091	Peoria 61451 61529 61552 61602 61603 61604 61605 61606 Perry 61452 62832 62997 Piatt 61813 61830 61839 61855 61929 61936 Pike 62312 62314 62323 62340 62343 62345 62352 62355 62356 62357 62361 62362 62363 62366 62370 Pope None Pulaski 62956 62963 62964 62976 62992 Putnam 61336 61340 61363 Randolph 62217 62242 62272 Richland 62419 62425 Rock Island 61201 61236 61239 61259 61265 61279 St. Clair 62201 62203 62204 62205 62220 62289	Saline 62930 62946 Sangamon 62625 62689 62703 Schuyler 61452 62319 62344 62624 62639 Scott 62621 62663 62694 Shelby 62438 62534 62553 Stark 61421 61426 61449 61479 61483 61491 Stephenson 61018 61032 61039 61044 61050 61060 61062 61067 61089 Tazewell 61539 61564 61721 61734 Union 62905 62906 62920 62926 Vermilion 60932 60942 60960 60963 61810 61831 61832 61833 61844 61848 61857 61865 61870 61876 61883 Wabash 62410 62852 62863	Warren 61412 61417 61423 61435 61447 61453 61462 61473 61478 Washington 62214 62803 Wayne 62446 62823 62843 62886 White 62820 62821 62835 62844 62887 Whiteside 61037 61243 61251 61261 61270 61277 61283 Will 60432 60433 60436 Williamson 62921 62948 62949 62951 Winnebago 61077 61101 61102 61103 61104 Woodford 61516 61545 61570 61760 61771
--	--	---	--	---	--	---	---	--	---

Resource Guide

For more information on dangerous children's products, please consult the following resources.

Illinois Attorney General's Office

www.IllinoisAttorneyGeneral.gov

Recall Hotline

1-888-414-7678

TTY: 1-800-964-3013

Provides information to consumers on all product recalls.

U.S. Consumer Product Safety Commission (CPSC)

All reports of injuries or incidents related to an unsafe product should be made to the CPSC.

www.cpsc.gov

Recall Hotline

1-800-638-2772

Offers e-mail notification of new recalls. Also provides a listing of all past and present recalls so you can check for recalled items you may already have in your home.

Illinois Department of Public Health

www.idph.state.il.us

Provides a list of recalled children's products.

Kids in Danger

www.kidsindanger.org

Provides a variety of information on child safety and product recalls.

Lead Safe Illinois

www.lead-safe-illinois.org

Provides information about lead poisoning and lead poisoning prevention. Lead Safe Illinois can direct consumers to locations that offer blood lead level testing.

Recalls.gov

www.recalls.gov

Provides a comprehensive list of all U.S. Government recalls, including food and drug recalls.

National Highway Traffic Safety Administration

www.nhtsa.dot.gov

Provides information regarding recalled children's car seats.